

Discover the Magic of Ireland

Montserrat In Ireland

Montserrat's program in Ballyvaughan, Ireland, is a four-week intensive comprised of two courses focusing on traditional storytelling and narrative art. The program is based at Burren College of Art in Ballyvaughan, County Clare, Ireland.

◀ July 10 - August 7, 2027

Study at the Burren, learn with our Faculty

Students will take two courses for 6 credits

Narrative Art in Ireland (studio art, illustration): Using the backdrop of Ireland, its inhabitants, and its lore, students will make a visual essay using journalistic/narrative techniques.

Storytelling in Ireland (liberal art, creative writing): Read and discuss Irish literature, fairy tales and folk tales, and write your own fantastical fiction inspired by the Emerald Isle.

Explore the Wild Atlantic Way

Get out into the landscape with field trips to places like:

- The Cliffs of Moher
- The Aran Islands (overnight stay)
- Galway
- Thoor Ballylee
- Coole Park

APPLY NOW

2027 Program Fees

Montserrat enrolled undergraduate: $6,500

External attendees: $7,000

Tuition Includes

- 6 College Credits
- Round-trip airfare from Boston to Ireland
- In-country travel (rail, bus, ferry, etc.)
- Housing
- Some group meals
- Course supplies
- Spring preparatory meetings (required)

Contact sfs@montserrat.edu to discuss financial aid options

APPLY NOW

More Information:

<https://www.montserrat.edu/academics/travel-programs/ballyvaughan-ireland>

Apply Now:

<https://www.cognitoforms.com/MontserratCollegeOfArt/TravelProgramApplication>

Questions:

ireland@montserrat.edu

catherine.robertson@montserrat.edu

@montcollegeart